

utcimaging

UTC Imaging | Tendo Injury Seminar Novel Treatments, Advanced Diagnosis and Management

Friday 25 January 2019, Novotel Amsterdam City Hotel

19:00 Welcome with dinner and drinks

20-minute Table Topics chaired by professor René van Weeren | Utrecht University (NL)

20:00 Tendon Injuries

The current state of knowledge about pathogenesis and treatment

Roger Smith | Royal Veterinary College London (UK)

What is UTC and what can it do to improve management of tendinopathy?

Hans van Schie | UTC Imaging (NL)

Tendinopathy treatment in the eyes of a human anatomist and surgeon

the underestimated role of peritendinous tissue

Gustav Andersson, Umea University (SE)

Clinical Cases of UTC-guided management of tendinopathy

Johan Lenz, Tornell Veterinary Clinic (SE)

Edouard Adriaensen, Equine Veterinary Services Adriaensen-Vandenberghe (BE)

Franklin Lashley, Raaphorst Equine Clinic (NL)

Interactive Discussion

Return to sports takes a long time and even then there is often a poor performance and a high-incidence of re-injuries!

Where does it go wrong and how can we improve functional outcomes?

22:00 End of the programme

Co-hosted by:

